VERANDA FURNITURE

THE TIME FOR IT HAS ARRIVED.

To us it seems but a few weeks ago that we were clearing stocks of all Piazza and Reed Furniture preparatory for the winter season. But it was months ago—further proof that time does fly. Now we tell you of the splendid new things in easy and restful pieces of Veranda Furniture for those days when mother nature tempts one to imbibe the outdoor air.

The Veranda is an index to the interior of the house. You can always tell a neatly furnished house by the exterior. We are showing some decided novelties in the way of Three-Piece Suits for the Veranda. They can be seen in our windows today, together with Porch Shades, Swings, Rugs, odd Rockers, Chairs, etc., all the very latest creations for the outside of the house.

A NIGHT WITH THE SPIRITS.

Houdon's Seance Tomorrow Evening at The Opera House.

There is every indication that the great Houdon will be greeted by a large audience at the opera house to-morrow night as the advance sale of seats shows more than ordinary interest in Houdon's work which is of a peculiar, fascinating character and appeals especially to all lovers of the mysterious. Houdon's fame has preceded him and everybody is looking forward to an enjoyable evening with the leading exponent of occult, psychic and spiritualistic phenomena. No matter what one's belief may be regarding these things Houdon's demonstrations are marvelous and puzzling in the extreme, and never fails to excite the deepest interest. His "grand light seance" is said to be of a weird and startling character, which his telepathic and occult demonstrations are far in advance of anything of the kind ever offered for scientific investigation. All sorts of strange manifestations take place on and off the stage in full view of the audience. Tables float in mid air, spirit wrappings are heard, and messages from the departed to their friends in the audience, together with Lillian Houdon's reading and answering of messages of unseen questions will comprise a programme on unusual attractiveness.

Is the Bald Eagle a Game Bird?

Upon the question, whether a bald eagle is a destructive bird hinges the guilt or innocence of A. M. Dimmick, a well-known man of this city, who is accused of violation of the game laws in wounding and capturing the bird.

Dimmick, who caught the bird after shooting and wounding it some days ago, was arrested to-day by Game Warden Shoemaker. A hearing will be held next week. His attorneys claim the bird is destructive and that the game laws permits it to be shot.—Wilkes-Barre correspondence of Philadelphia Press.
